Washington, M.—Commissioner Meacham and Agent Berry telegraph from Loe Pinos to Secretary Schurz. Meacham's dispetch: October 12th, the commission and Berry have gone to the Indians camp to quiet the Indians. The constable has called for a posse. Both contable and military are waiting to know abou jurisdiction. If Berry leaves the agency treemply year will leave. I have been sucum ned as a witness for the state. The minitary expect instructions this eyening. A conflict between the state and government seems probable. Utes will doubtless be involved. I think it impossible at this time for Surveys to be attempted. Expect Major to-day.
